8 UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
9 DISTRICT OF NEVADA

10 GEORGE L. MARSHALL,

11 Plaintiff(s),

12 v.

13 JAMES COX, et al.,

14 Defendant(s).
15

Case No. 2:16-cv-0566-JAD-NJK

ORDER

(Docket Nos. 7, 8)

16 Pending before the Court is Defendants' motion to exempt this case from mediation. Docket No.
17 7. Defendants seek such relief because Plaintiff failed to appear at a mediation in another case in 2016, and 18 has not responded to Defendants' counsel's queries regarding prosecuting this case. Id. at 2-3. The Court
19 is not persuaded that these grounds suffice to exempt this case from mediation, and the motion is DENIED.

20 Also pending before the Court is Defendants' motion for an order to show cause why this case
21 should not be dismissed for failure to prosecute. Docket No. 8. The only conduct identified arising from 22 this case is Plaintiff's non-responsiveness to Defendants' counsel's queries regarding the case. Id. at 2-3.
23 Defendants provide no legal authority that a plaintiff's non-response to opposing counsel's communications
24 could be sufficient grounds to dismiss his case for lack of prosecution. Similarly, although Defendants
25 again note Plaintiff's failure to appear at a mediation in another case in 2016, see id., they provide no legal
26 authority that such conduct in a different case could constitute a failure to prosecute this case. In short,
27 while Defendants may believe that Plaintiff will not prosecute his case, they have not identified facts and 28 legal authority showing that he has actually failed to do so at this point. Defendants' motion is premature.

1 Accordingly, the motion for an order to show cause why the case should not be dismissed for failure to
2 prosecute is DENIED without prejudice. To the extent Plaintiff fails to prosecute his case moving forward,
3 Defendants may seek relief from the Court.¹

4 IT IS SO ORDERED.
